In addition to this, General Kuroki has a desperate sized. This is shown by the

In addition to this, General Kuroki has thrown back the eastern wing of the Russian army at Yangtsuling and Kushtusu. The Japanese losses here were six officers killed and sixteen wounded, and $50 men killed and wounded. The Russian losses are not yet estimated in these fights, but are said to have been very heavy.

This steady advance of the Japanese forces, which is in the nature of the drawing in of a net about the Russians, and the equally steady retreat of the Russian troops may not last more than twenty-four hours longer, in the opinion of those best qualified to know.

The Russians must engage in a general battle, and the probabilities are that

GEN. KUROPATKIN REPORTS HIS LOSSES AS BEING HEAVY VLADIVOSTOK SQUADRON

ST PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—In a dispatch General Kuropatkin says that according to a report from the commanding officer the eastern troops, after abandoning their advanced position at Yanzelin (Yangtsuling), retired in the direction of Landiantsen and toward Satmatse and Liao-Yang. The Russians retired to their principal positions. They sustained heavy losses. It is hoped that in their main positions they will maintain a successful struggle even against numerically superior forces.

According to recent reports General Kuroki has concentrated his forces in order to strike toward Saimatse and Liao-Yang. Today the enemy is acting undecidedly on the southern front. A reconnoissance ascertained that the Japanese are beginning a turning movement against the Russian left wing at Hai-Cheng, with at least three divisions. The Russian eastern detachment was engaged until noon Monday in the direction of Saimatse and Liao-Yyang. The enemy is advancing apparently only in small bodies against the Russian rearguard's right.

"The enemy at Yushulintsu consisted of two divisions with corresponding artiflery.

"The attacking operations were carried out as prearranged, and by sunset we defeated both wings of the enemy, but owing to their large force and strong positions we were unable to disodge them extended to the stepeness of the result of the stepene

This is a most important fact, as it is evident that Kuroki is drawing his forces together with the intention of driving home his long prepared attempt to turn the Russian left wing.

President, for is not Mr. Davis' life embitteted by the Republicanism of his son-in-law, Senator Stephen B. Elkins of Virginia?

After today's revelations one can readily believe the rumor current that Judge Parker and Mr. Davis, on the occasion of the octogenarian's visit, did not fritter away their time discussing the possibilities in New York and West Virginia, but devoted themselves to an earnest confab as to the best method of winning the son-in-law vote.

There is a suspicion that Judge Parker has set about to secure the conversion of Mr. Hall by forcing him to associate with his Democratic visitors. Is Senator Pat McCarren coming to Rosemont again that he may whisper sly Democratic things to Mr. Hall as they sit side by side in the wagonette on the way up from the station? So it is bruited at the new green station.

And if Senator McCarren fails will Richard Olney be sleked on Mr. Hall? Some one must do the work of party love, for it would ill become a Presidential candidate to solicit Mr. Hall's vote. If all else fails it is believed that the Democratic managers, perhaps through William F. Sheehan, will make a clean breast of their plight to Alton Parker Hall and demand that he ask his father to vote for his grandfather. The fify must be removed from the amber.

DEMOCRATS MEET IN INDIANAPOLIS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 3.-When he great throng of Democrats of Indiana, here for the Democratic conven-tion, entered Tomlinson Hall this morning at 11 o'clock, they found the hall filled with pictures of old Democratic leaders, including Bryan, Parker, Hill, Taggart, Jefferson, and Jackson, one was mssing. want to win this year, and if Taggart wants Kern, it's all right, or whatever he wants is all right. He's going to lead and we'll follow."

It is settled that any ticket that Taggart finally decides upon will be put through, and Kern will head it. There is more enthuslasm than has been known in years at a Democratic convention.

John B. Stoll, the veteran editor of South Bend, announced just before the convention met that Edward Fogarty withdrew from the race for governor, leaving a clear field to Kern, who will be named by acclamation.
